INFECTION APPEARS IN STOCK YARD

FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE ATTACKS CATTLE IN CHICAGO YARDS TODAY.

AT NOTRE DAME ALSO

Herd of Blooded Stock to Be Destroyed at the Indiana University.

(Associated Press)

Chicago, Nov. 3.—Foot and mouth disease has broken out in the stock yards here. Formal announcement of the epidemic, however, will be withheld until tomorrow pending scientific proof.

But one case has been discovered, and it is not expected the government quarantine will be extended.

Three hundred stockmen who arrived with cattle from infected districts have objected to remaining at the yards until the quarantine has been lifted.

Washington, Nov. 3.—The quarantine of live stock on account of outbreaks of foot and mouth disease has been extended to cover the entire area of the states of Michigan, Indiana, Illinois and Pennsylvania. In addition restrictions have been placed upon shipments of stock from Ohio. The provisions of this quarantine are practically the same as those previously announced for a few counties in Michigan and Indiana. No cattle, sheep or swine can be shipped from these states in interstate commerce and all fodder and animal products of every sort which might possibly convey the disease must be thoroughly disinfected.

The quarantined states are not only prohibited from shipping cattle to uninfected areas but they can not even send shipments of stock from one infected area to another.

Union Stock Yards Quarantined.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—The Union stock yards were declared under a quarantine so drastic that it would have virtually tied up the industry for a week or more. Shortly after 1 p. m., however, the partial quarantine of last week was restored with full power to receive shipments of cattle, but none to ship out live cattle to other points. The explanation of the menace that suddenly rose before the yards and then as suddenly disappeared was ascribed to the fact that the sweeping quarantine order was issued before Washington had been notified. It was said that the long distance telephone was used and the order was rescinded.

For Slaughter Only.

Dr. S. E. Bennett, who signed the original order, also signed the second, which was as follows: "Until further notice cattle, sheep and hogs will be received at the Union stock yards for slaughter only."

It also was signed by O. E. Dyson, state veterinarian in charge, the state livestock commissioners, B. J. Shanley, Dr. L. S. Brown and R. M. Patterson. Dr. Bennett, who is the United States veterinary inspector in charge, signed after his name "co-operating with the state of Illinois."

The rescinding of the order came as a great relief to the whole stock yards industry, thrown into something like panic by the original order of quarantine.

While the stock yards officials had remained optimistic in their statements as given to the public, it was apparent quarantine came as a bitter blow, especially in view of the prospects.

Railroads Raise Passenger Rate Between States

Central Passenger Association Hopes To Add Million To Revenue

The interstate commerce commission handed down a decision in July advising the railroads to look to their passenger tariffs for increasing their revenues rather than to the changes of freight rates.

The commission pointed out that the passenger business was unremunerative and that reports showed an actual loss to the carriers for twenty-five years.

The railroads in Central Passenger association territory yesterday gave their answer to the commission by filing advances in interstate fares which will put the charges on a 2 1/2 cent mile basis.

The new rates are to become effective Dec. 1, and affect all railroads operating in the territory north of the Potomac river, east of the Mississippi river, and west of Buffalo, Pittsburg, and Wheeling.

Public Given Thirty Days.

The public is given a 30 day period to file complaints or to ask for a suspension of rates and investigation. While there is a possibility of some such action the railroads feel the commission would refuse to suspend the rates because of their statement in the recent freight rate advance case.

The new rates, as filed with the commission, show an attempt to put the tariffs in Central Passenger association territory on an even basis of 2 1/2 cents per mile as a substitute for the present system of charges, which range from 2 cents per mile to 2 1/2 cents. The increases will add more than $1,000,000 to railroad revenues annually, it is estimated.

The new rates do not change in any way the rates now effective between points within a particular state.

MISS CECIL BROWNE DIED AT GALESBURG

FORMER DIXON YOUNG LADY PASSED AWAY AFTER PROTRACTED ILLNESS.

The many friends of Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Browne and their daughter, Cecil, former residents of Dixon, will be pained to learn of the death of the young lady at their home in Galesburg on Monday after a protracted serious illness, during which a number of specialists endeavored in vain to save her young life. Miss Browne was eighteen years of age and will be remembered by many Dixon people as a charming young lady. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gilbert and Miss Grace Crawford of this city will attend the funeral, which will be held on Wednesday.

FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE APPEARS IN KANE COUNTY

DREAD EPIDEMIC ATTACKS HERD NEAR KANEVILLE EAST OF DEKALB.

ANIMALS WERE KILLED TODAY

State Officials Take Charge of Destruction of Animals Which Are Exposed.

(Special to the Telegraph.)

DeKalb, Nov. 3.—The dreaded foot and mouth disease has broken out in Illinois and not very far from DeKalb. M. V. Dadds, who was down to Kaneville yesterday reports that the great herds belonging to George Dauberman, a mile north of Kaneville, is infected with the scourge and today every animal on the place except the human occupants is being killed.

The dreaded disease has been killing cattle in southern Michigan and northern Indiana and the government has been making a heroic effort to stamp it out or at least confine it to this one territory until it should have run its course. The Dauberman herds are believed to have become infected from a shipment from another state.

The report from Kaneville indicates the first spread of the disease into Illinois and means a rigid quarantine for the farms in this vicinity to avoid any spread of the trouble.

Killing All Stock.

On the Dauberman farm today every animal including dogs, cattle, horses, sheep and hogs is being killed. This includes a splendid herd of 59 cattle, 300 sheep and 100 hogs and will mean a lot of money going into the ground. State officials are on the ground today and are supervising the work of death going on.

The foot and mouth disease is primarily a disease of cloven footed animals. Secondly, it is a disease of men. Its normal habitat is Europe, from which it extends at times to all parts of the world. This is the sixth epidemic in the United States. The fifth was in 1908. At that time it was found fairly extensively distributed in the dairy districts around Detroit and Philadelphia.

Caused by Virus.

The foot and mouth disease is caused by a filterable virus. At the present time the group of diseases due to germs, too small to be seen with a microscope and capable of passing

SAYS POTATOES SHOW ROT

P. C. Bowser states that the potatoes this year throughout the country are showing a great deal of rot, owing to the peculiar season in the growing sections. He states that a person should be very careful in storing quantities of stock and to be sure they are received from a district where rot is not so prevalent. He states that he has been backward in ordering stock to this market as he wants to be sure and get them from the best source possible.

Man Who Hired Rig Inquired Way To Geneva Sunday

Authorities Get Track Of Alleged Thief From Eldena Man

L. A. Phillips of Eldena saw John Graves driving the horse which he had hired from the Lee Read livery barn of this city Sunday afternoon, and he inquired from Mr. Phillips, the route to Geneva. The authorities are now convinced that the young man has no intention of returning the horse.

Mr. Phillips met the young man south of Franklin Grove but thought nothing of him asking the route to Geneva until he read the account of the young man taking the horse in the Telegraph last evening. He then called Mr. Read and told him that he had seen the horse and rig. It has just been learned that he also has gone under the name of Roy Jobe around here and it is believed that he will drive the horse into Chicago.

LOWDEN TALKS TO DIXON AUDIENCE MONDAY EVENING

FORMER CONGRESSMAN GAVE INTERESTING SPEECH AT FAMILY THEATRE.

DIXON MARINE BAND PLAYED

County Chairman Warner Introduced Colonel Lowden—Big Audience Enjoyed the Speeches.

The republican campaign in Lee county closed in a very satisfactory manner last evening when Col. Frank O. Lowden delivered a rousing good speech at the Family theatre to the biggest audience that has yet listened to a campaign speech in Lee county this fall.

Chairman Harry C. Warner introduced the distinguished visitor and in his talk he thanked States Attorney Harry Edwards and John H. Byers for the wonderfully good work these two men, in company with many others, had done throughout the county.

Colonel Lowden opened his speech by saying that he had come to Dixon to deliver his talk in spite of the rumors that had been afloat about the city (started by certain interested parties) saying that he would not be present, and he also nailed another "inspired" rumor by declaring that another reason he was in Dixon was because he was in favor of John C. McKenzie for congress.

Mr. Lowden's talk was full of important facts and dry humor. He delivered telling blows against the opposition and there is no doubt that his speech resulted in many straight republican votes.

Democratic extravagance, democratic incompetence and the tariff were his important subjects.

The Family theatre was packed nearly full and the audience was very enthusiastic in its applause. The Dixon Marine Band rendered several very pretty selections.

GANGRENE GERM HAS BEEN FOUND

PARIS DOCTORS MAKE A LIFE-SAVING DISCOVERY — APPLIED TO WAR.

(Associated Press) Paris Nov. 3.—The microbe which causes gangrene has been discovered by Doctors Scarlet and Des Jardines of the American Ambulance Service, and Dr. Weisberg of the Pasteur institute, is preparing a serum which being injected into patients on the battlefield during the early stages of the infection will obviate amputation and will prevent great loss of life.

Royal Welch Ladies Choir Was Excellent

It is to be regretted that a larger audience was not in attendance at the concert given Monday evening at the Presbyterian church by the Royal Welch Ladies' choir, whose appearance was under the auspices of the Candlelighters. This excellent organization gave one of the most pleasing concerts ever heard in Dixon and their program was so arranged that it was very pleasing to all. The young ladies of the choir have marked ability; and their solos, duets, quartets and ensemble work were most excellent, winning enthusiastic encores. The violin solo by one of the members of the choir was a treat to every one, the performers showing marked ability on her instrument. The entire program was of high order, showing much ability and training and it is to be hoped the choir can return to Dixon for an engagement before a larger audience.

BOYS CLUB HAD MEETING

The Boys Club of the Y. M. C. A. met Sunday afternoon and about 30 boys were present to listen to the talk by Prof. H. H. Hagen of the North Dixon schools. ## Brakeman Nearly Run Over; Brushed Aside By Engine

Art Hagerman of Sterling Passenger Hurt at Geneva Monday Eve

Arthur Hagerman, brakeman on the Northwestern's Sterling passenger, who is well known in Dixon, and whose wife was a former Dixon girl, had a narrow escape from death or serious injury Monday afternoon when the locomotive of the St. Charles passenger brushed him at Geneva while he was throwing a switch to "set out" a carload of horses there.

Fortunately Mr. Hagerman was brushed to one side instead of being knocked down, otherwise the engine would have passed over his body. He received a severe injury to his right hip however; but considers himself very fortunate.

Conductor Injured.

Mr. Hagerman's injury followed a slight accident to Conductor Pat Barlow of the same train which prevented the conductor from taking his run this week. Saturday evening Mr. Barlow discovered several Greeks from Nelson, all in an intoxicated condition, boarding the train here and carrying a sack of suspicious appearance. He investigated and found that the sack contained a keg of beer, and in kicking it off the train he severely bruised his leg, the injury becoming so painful Sunday that he was forced to lay off from his work.

CONGREGATION SHIPMENT SENT

DONATION FOR CHRISTMAS SHIP VALUED AT MORE THAN EIGHTY DOLLARS.

The Congregational Sunday school Monday packed and shipped three barrels of presents for the Christmas ship "Inasmuch," which will take the goods to Europe for distribution among the sufferers from the great war. Included in the shipment, the total value of which was over $80, were 20 pounds of homemade candy, much underwear and other clothing and toys. The Sunday school is thankful to all who assisted in the good work.

Charles Sheffield of Grand Detour and John Ford of this city left Monday to join E. A. Sickles, Joe Miller and others on a hunting trip in the Wisconsin woods.

ALL ARE INVITED TO BE GUESTS OF THE TELEGRAPH AT THE FAMILY THEATRE TONIGHT

The people of Dixon and vicinity and especially the women are cordially invited to be the guests of the Telegraph at the Family theater this evening, where the election returns will be given, together with a good moving picture show. The theater will be open at 7 o'clock and admission is absolutely free, as the Telegraph wishes all to have a comfortable place while receiving the news of the great battle of ballots which is being waged in the country today. The heavy vote being cast through out the county and state will make the returns tardy and it is not believed many figures will be obtainable until 7 o'clock, at which time the Family theater will be thrown open. This paper has made arrangements to cover the county most thoroughly and as rapidly as the judges in the various election precincts complete the county the results will be telephoned direct to the Telegraph's force at the theater. The news from about the state and nation will be handled by the Associated Press, bulletins being sent direct over the Western Union wires. Tomorrow morning the Telegraph will issue a special election extra, which will be on the streets at about daylight and which will contain every bit of election news available at that hour.

THE EASIEST WAY TO END DANDRUFF

Stop Falling Hair and Itching Scalp.

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy, every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you want to keep your hair looking rich, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and every body notices it. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

Mrs. Louis Drummond delightfully entertained twenty young people at her home on College avenue last evening. The house was decorated in Hallowe'en style, orange and black being the color scheme. Black cats, witches, bats, ghosts and pumpkins were in evidence everywhere in artistic confusion. The decorations were very beautiful and full of surprises as ghosts made their unexpected appearance in dark corners. The guests were met at the door by a witch who for the cost of a penny took them to the cellar where a fortune teller emerged from a huge shock of corn and told their fortunes. Many weird adventures befell the startled guests as they explored the lower regions. Games, music and cards were features of the evening, prizes being awarded to the most skillful. A delicious luncheon was served on a table very prettily decorated in its dress of autumn leaves and big red apples, the young people being served by a ghost, who although uncanny treated his guests most royally. Those present will long remember the happy occasion and Mr. and Mrs. Drummond's hospitality.

After the guests were seated there was a grand march of the waiters they being the gentlemen of the Sterling chapter, and were appropriately gowned in Dutch costume with rosy cheeks and very black mustaches. They were heartily applauded by the diners and they proved themselves most efficient waiters. After the dinner hour all repaired to the lodge rooms where the degree was conferred upon four young ladies. After the work of the evening an impromptu program was given and the members enjoyed dancing until a late hour. All those attending report an excellent time and the Sterling Chapter the most efficient of entertainers.

Hallowe'en at Nachusa.

The Hallowe'en social given at the Nachusa church Saturday evening was one of the most largely attended and most enjoyable of the season there.

How To Get Rid of a Bad Cough

A Home-Made Remedy that Will Do It Quickly, Cheap and Easily Made

If you have a bad cough or chest cold which refuses to yield to ordinary remedies, get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Start taking a teaspoonful every hour or two. In 24 hours your cough will be conquered or very nearly so. Even whooping cough is greatly relieved in this way.

The above mixture makes a full pint—a family supply—of the finest cough syrup that money could buy—at a cost of only 54 cents. Easily prepared in 5 minutes. Full directions with Pinex.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup preparation takes right hold of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough in a way that is really remarkable. Also quickly breaks the inflamed membranes which accompany a painful cough, and stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough. Excellent for bronchitis, spasmodic croup and winter coughs. Keeps perfectly and tastes good—children like it.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in quaiacol, which is so healing to the membranes. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex"—do not accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

"SYRUP OF FIGS" FOR CONSTIPATED CHILD

DELICIOUS "FRUIT LAXATIVE" CAN'T HARM STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

Every mother realizes after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, sore throat, has stomachache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleanser" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

WAR AND SEX BALANCE

The immediate effect of the war on immigration has been to cut it down immensely. What the ultimate effect will be is now a matter of speculation among sociologists and government experts, but the consensus of opinion seems to be that while there may be a permanent falling off in the number of male immigrants, there will be an increase in the arrival of women on our shores.

If that be so, it will tend to restore the balance between the sexes, both in the Old World and in the New. For in Europe, even before the war broke out, there were more women than men but the terrific casualties in the conflict now on will weight the balance down on the side of the gentler sex to an infinitely greater extent.

On the other hand, the United States has an excess of men. In only six states of the union, including the District of Columbia, according to the census of 1910 were there more women than men, these being in the east and the old south, while in the remaining commonwealth males were in the majority. The disparity is most striking, of course, in the newer and less populous states. But immigration itself is the most potent cause of the general excess of men, as is proved by reference to the census. For while there was little change in the ratio of males and females among the native-born, among the foreign-born inhabitants the number of males per hundred females increased from 117.4 in 1900 to 129.2 in 1910.

The prospect, therefore, of enhancing immigration of women is an inviting one. The dearth of eligible maidens for our pining bachelors and of house servants should soon be a thing of the past.—St. Paul Pioneer-Press.

IRON RING OF PATRIOTISM.

Among the stories of sacrifice made by the women of the lands of war none is finer than that told of the women of Germany, the patriotic women of wealth and station who glory in the general level of devotion to their country where are found the women of the empire without regard to station.

The story states that the women have donated their jewelry to be converted into money to buy arms for their husbands and brothers upon the battlefields. Each woman for her donation receives a ring of iron bearing the inscription: "I gave gold for this." The gross metal has the finest burnish of gold in the light of the symbolism of the iron ring that is worn with pride by many women of the land.

Long after the war shall have closed these iron rings will be cherished by the possessors and handed down to posterity and in time they doubtless will have a value beyond the gold for which they are now the receipts. The iron ring shows that though the iron of suffering has entered the souls of the women, they cherish the pure gold of patriotism. Thus the women of Germany live up to the traditions of their race and align themselves with the self-devoted women of all the lands at strife who form a sisterhood of sorrow.—Baltimore American.

PSYCHOLOGICAL BOMBARDMENT.

Psychology is playing a larger part in the battles of this war than many realize. Observers report some interesting mental phases of the conflict that are vastly important, not only in determining the result, but as criterions of our civilization. For one thing it is noted that the city-dwellers—much despised heretofore as degenerate, enervated weaklings—are proving the better soldiers. They wear better than their sturdier brethren of the country. They stand much better the nervous strain of bombardment, of all-day excitement and uncertainty. Their city life, amid noise, movement and danger, has trained them.

Yet even they are not proof against the psychology of the German siege operations. They wear down mentally and physically under a mental torture that Professor Munsterburg himself might have devised—the rning of the great siege guns just so far apart as to give the impression each time that the bombardment is at last over.—Philadelphia Ledger.

WHAT McCALL DID.

Congressman Thatcher's tribute to Mrs. Woodrow Wilson in his Plymouth speech was gracefully rendered, and not one of his hearers, we venture to say, doubted that it was fully deserved. Mrs. Wilson's deep interest in the welfare of the poor of Washington may be taken as an evidence of Christian philanthropy practically applied. It detracts not the slightest from the merits of her service in this matter to point out that the bill the passage of which she was largely instrumental in bringing about was originally introduced and for some time actually supported by the republican candidate for governor in this state—Samuel W. McCall. If Congressman McCall pointed the way, it was undoubtedly Mrs. Wilson's influence, exerted even after her death, which made a law of the measure she had advocated.—Exchange.

The Unhappy Home

By WALT MASON

Tired father to his home returns all jaded by the stress and fray, to have the rest for which he yearns throughout the long and toilsome day. His supper's ready on the board, as good a meal as e'er was sprung, a meal no worker could afford in olden times, when we were young. He looks around with frowning brow, and sighs, "Ah, what a lot of junk! This butter never knew a cow, the coffee is extremely punk. You know I like potatoes boiled, and so, of course, you dish them fried; this poor old beefsteak has been broiled until it's tough as walrus hide. It beats me, Susan, where you find such doughnuts, which resemble rock; these biscuits you no doubt designed to act as weights for your clock. You couldn't fracture with a club the kind of sponge cake that you dish; alas, for dear old mother's grub throughout my days I vainly wish." Then Susan, burdened with her cares, worn out, discouraged, sad and weak, sits down beneath the cellar stairs, and weeps in German, French and Greek. Alas, the poor unhappy soul, whose maiden dreams are all a wreck! She ought to take a ten-foot pole and prod her husband in the neck.

Copyright, 1914 by Adams Newspaper Service

This is the day on which the American voter goes to the polls and picks out a new mess of hired men from the employment bureau known as the Australian ballot. It makes a citizen feel tall and important to run over a hundred names with a keen, discriminating pencil, rewarding a man here by putting a cross before his name and giving his enemies the cold Spitzbergen go-by. It only takes a minute or two to mark a ballot and a man only gets a chance to do it once or twice a year. But it is more dangerous to attempt to deprive a man of this little pastime than it is to hold cannon crackers by the neck while lighting the fuse. All over the world men of various shades and colors have risen up unanimously and dissection tyrants who have persisted in doing all the voting themselves. A man will lug a heavy gun for years, sleeping in the rain, with the milky way for bed clothes, and living on hope and salt pork in order to win the ballot. But after he has busted the oppressor and has gained the divine right of suffrage he isn't so particular about it, and unless some one will haul him to the polls in an automobile with a banner lashed across the stern he is as likely as not to play pool all day and let the country save itself.

There are almost twenty million voters in this country, some of them will vote several times today. Others will vote once and spend the rest of the time towing reluctant citizens to the polls. Still others will scorn the ballot altogether and will spend the afternoon playing golf and cursing the dishonesty of public officials. More than ten million men will neglect to step around and vote for the best man in fine eloquent pencil marks today. On the other hand, more than ten million women are shouting for the ballot in tearful, pleading tones. This suggests a solution. Let the votes of the ten million trousered patriots who fail to get on the job today be given to the ten million women who are desiring the ballot. Nothing damages a vote so much as to let it rust away in disuse.

BE AMERICANS.

Is it not about time we dropped the hyphen with which certain Americans are connected with the places of their nativity? All citizens of this country, whether they entered into that proud relation by birth or naturalization, are Americans. It may be assumed they are Americans by choice and by that choice they themselves sundered ties or bonds or obligations which connected them with any other country. They why maintain the associations and perpetuate the possible differences and disagreements that are expressed in that hyphenated description? It is unnecessary, misleading and generally wrong. Why not all be Americans and only Americans? What good purpose can be served by keeping up the Swedish-Americans? All can be better Americans, as we assume they desire to be, and all can be better neutrals by dropping the hyphen and simply being Americans.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

GRAY BELGIUM.

There is something symbolic in the fact that Belgium's statement of her diplomatic case in the war is a "gray" book. Gray is a "neutral" color. There is reproach in its very name. It is the color of despair, as black is the color of mourning. Big, bristling, buoyant Russia can come out in an "orange" book; England and Germany can present the cold story of their diplomatic duel in "white."

But Belgium comes forth in gray. And grayness will tinge the atmosphere of that unhappy little country for years to come, no matter which side wins the great war.—Chicago Post.

SCIENCE VS. STATISTICS.

Science was horrified when Statistics discovered that babies to the economic value of $200,000,000 perished every year. "This must cease," exclaimed Science, excitedly. "It's up to you," rejoined Statistics, without emotion. But no sooner had Science, by various devices, caused the babies to stop perishing than Statistics discovered that half of these were girls, and $200,000,000 wouldn't begin to dress them. Science looked rather foolish. "The laugh is on you," quoth Statistics, grimly.—Life.

WHAT'S THE USE?

Taking the total women's vote from the total vote at the city elections last spring, there was a clear majority for license in the State of Illinois.—East St. Louis Journal.

But there's the rub. How now, are you going to take the women's votes from the city elections in Illinois? And since women must be reckoned with in municipal contests hereafter, what's the use in figuring on what mere man would do or would not do with respect to the license question?

WHY NOT?

The following poem entitled "Why Not?" is up to the instant and in all probability declares the sentiment of nearly every voter in this section of the country. We are indebted for it to an old soldier and pioneer resident of Hanover:

Why Not?

John C. McKenzie for Congress; Why not? Of our many good men he's the best in the lot. Tried in the blaze of hot political torch, He emerges a victor, with never a scorch.

As the rock of ages in firmness abounds, As the stars in their orbits make unerring rounds; Just so firmly he stands in his place for the right, Dealing wrong death blows in the thick of the fight.

In a fight for the people where disputes arise, John has the courage to shelve party ties; Then let us, likewise, ignore party lines, Send him back where his record with honesty shines.

When in doubt, it is safest to launch in a boat, That in storm's raging blasts remained proudly afloat. If the untried have begged till you're all in a frenzy, Tie to one that has been tested. That's John C. McKenzie.

NEAR DEATH IN GAS MYSTERY

Mother and Son Found Overcome With Cracks of Room Stove.

Granite City, Ill., Nov. 2.—Mrs. Mary Griffin, fifty-six years old, and her son, Walter Griffin, twenty-three years old, were found unconscious in their home.

Two gas jets were found open and the cracks of the doors and windows were filled with rags. William Israel, son-in-law of Mrs. Griffin, who lives next door, went to the Griffin home. He detected the odor of gas issuing from the back door. He opened the door and found the door leading to the bed room locked. He called in several neighbors and it was broken down. Mrs. Griffin was found lying on the floor near the bed and her son was lying on the bed. Physicians at the hospital say that Walter Griffin will recover, but that Mrs. Griffin has little chance to live.

"J. C. R." FIGURES IN MORE STRIKING ROLE

"Harry Hes" Now Claims He Is Rich Farmer's Son.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—"J. C. R." the man of mystery, whose case of amnesia puzzled the country since he was found at Watseka, Minn., in June, 1907, has stepped from a comfortable home in Groveland Park, Chicago, into a tragic drama, the central figure of which is said to be a western "bad man" of the old school.

"J. C. R." has appeared in Dickinson, N. D., to claim property worth perhaps $100,000. With him is Mrs. Hes Pitkin, the woman who a few months ago took him from Oak Forest infirmary, upon "satisfactory proof" that he was her son by a former marriage and that his name was Hes.

J. H. Caldwell, a wealthy rancher, is accused of having inflicted the injury which deprived "J. C. R." of his memory. "The man of mystery" is now said to be Jay Caldwell, the rancher's son, and Mrs. Mary Luff, J. H. Caldwell's daughter, is foremost among her father's accusers. It is said that the father forged the name of his son to notes and converted them to his own use for a large sum of money and then turned the son, who is a deaf mute, loose to roam the world.

Now comes the story that at no time was Mrs. Pitkin acting in her own interests. J. D. Greenbaum of Chicago, the lawyer who is leading "J. C. R." fight for a fortune, declares that from the first she was allied with Mrs. Luff, whose effort to claim her supposed brother, met with reverses through the interference of lawyers in the employ of Caldwell.

BOOTLEGGER POISONS TOWN

Puts Wood Alcohol Into His Dope by Mistake! Fourteen Already Dead.

Middlebury, Vt., Nov. 3.—Dr. H. D. Bleece, the Bristol druggist arrested Sunday following the deaths of four men from drinking liquor said by the authorities to have been purchased at his store, was rushed to the county jail here by Sheriff Farr for safe keeping, the Bristol townspeople being in an ugly mood because ten more men have since died of the same cause. Three or four more are in a dangerous condition and are not expected to survive the night. Wood alcohol, mixed with ether and water, is said to have been the concoction manufactured by Bleece and sold to about forty men Saturday and Sunday. The victims range in ages from twenty-four to seventy and most of them have families.

As the victims died one after another intense feeling arose against the druggist and there was strong talk among the citizens of lynching him. It is believed here that Bleece, in mixing the mixture intended to use grain alcohol, but poured in the contents of a can of wood alcohol by mistake. Nearly every resident of the town has lost either a relative or a close friend and with deaths occurring hourly it is possible that a total of nearly a hundred may pay the toll.

A shortage in the meat supply, while considered unlikely by local packing officials, now is entirely averted. The hurry in prices due to so radical an action also is avoided.

NEW HAVEN HEADS FACING JAIL TERMS

Twenty-one Millionaires Indicted Under Sherman Act.

New York, Nov. 3.—An indictment charging a criminal conspiracy to violate the Sherman anti-trust law was handed down in the United States district court against twenty-one men, directors or former directors of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad. The penalty on conviction carries a jail term of one year.

Joined to these twenty-one are the names of forty-five more men also directors or former directors, who are designated as "co-conspirators" but they are not indicted. Among them are names of men long since dead.

The complete list of those indicted is as follows:

Reed, Charles P. Clark, Clarence M. Depew, Lucius Tuttle, Charles S. Mellon, Royal C. Taft, Richard A. McCurdy, E. McK. Twombly, Alexander J. Cassatt, Timothy E. Byrne, Edward C. Buckland, Oakleigh Thorne and Marsden J. Perry.

ALLIES HAVE BEST OF FIGHT

Paris Reports Gains All Along Line With German Effort Weakening.

Paris, Nov. 3.—From the North sea to Alsace the armies of Belgium, France and England had distinctly the better of the hard fighting of two days. The official reports show that the allies made progress all along the line and that the German effort weakened in the past twenty-four hours.

On Sunday the German armies attacked desperately in Flanders. In northern France, along the hills of Champagne and along the Meuse, but failed to break the allied line at any point and lost ground in determined counter attacks by General Joffre's troops. As formerly, the increased violence of their offensive was useless. Today the Germans were less active between the North sea and the Oise, and the allies moved forward slightly in Belgium, near Dixmude.

Family Theatre tomorrow, an extra special, "It's Up to You" comes highly recommended. Do not fail to attend.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE

Heading the bill tonight is one of the most interesting and exciting pictures ever shown to the public, a 3-reel Eclair western drama entitled, "The Squatter." The Eclair company is noted throughout the world for its splendid photography and perfect productions and this is surely no exception to the rule. Father's Bride is a Joker comedy full of humor and a treat well worth seeing. Remember, on Wednesday we have a special gift matinee for the ladies; every lady receives a souvenir of value.

Next Sunday evening, Nov. 8, we have "The Divorce Question," in connection with our regular bill of pictures, at popular prices, 19, 20 and 25 cents. This production is played by an exceptionally strong stock company that has been turning away people from the Majestic theatre in Rockford every evening.

PRINCESS THEATRE.

Tonight the Princess will show an excellent two reel feature entitled, "Daylight," an American feature with Winnifred Greenwood and Ed. Coxen in the leading roles. This is an affecting romance of a young musician, a companion production, "The Light," and others. The acting and photography in this picture is something never seen before with a story which is original and new. The other pictures are "The Loves of the Ladies," a Keystone comedy full of laughs, and comedy. The other picture is "Down By the Sea," an American drama with Ed. Coxen and Winnifred Greenwood in the leading roles.

OPERA HOUSE.

Coming, The Divorce Question, on Sunday eve, Nov. 8th, Roland & Clifford's greatest success, the play that turned away 300 people nightly at the Majestic theatre, Rockford, Ill. The same cast and scenic productions.

"WHEN DREAMS COME TRUE."
The very latest musical comedy offering "When Dreams Come True," with book and lyrics by Philip Bartholomea, and music by Silvio Hein, is arranged for Thursday evening at the Opera House.

"When Dreams Come True," produced originally in Cleveland, Ohio, and taken to Chicago, where it played for more than six months at the Garrick theatre. At the conclusion of the Chicago engagement, the company went to New York and opened at the Lyric theatre, where they stayed for three months, then they transferred to the 44th Street theatre, and after ten weeks at that house, engagements in Philadelphia and Boston followed.

This is the first season that a comprehensive tour of the country has been essayed, and the play comes to us fresh from its triumphant engagements to the four cities mentioned.

"When Dreams Come True," is a musical comedy with a blend of melo drama. The story is consistent throughout, in which it differs materially from most of musical shows, although the musical comedy features have not been sacrificed on account of dramatic interest, but they have been so deftly blended that the play is a marvel of dramatic construction.

A large company headed by Fred Eric Santley and including several players who have won distinction in musical comedy will interpret the various roles.

The singing and dancing features

call for the service of a large chorus which has been selected with the idea that they had to sing, to dance and to look attractive.

The costume of the play shows the very latest models of the late European fashions.

TALKING PEACE; FIGHTING BEGINS

War Starts Between Turkey and Triple Entente.

TWO TURK SHIPS ARE SUNK

HEAVY FIGHTING

ALONG RIVER YSER
Yesterday, Nov. 3.—Heavy fighting is reported along the River Yser and the Germans are evidently attempting to break through the allies' lines to Calais by a more southerly route.

NICHOLAS ORDERS HIS TROOPS TO ATTACK TURKS.

London, Nov. 3.—A dispatch from Tiflis says that Emperor Nicholas has ordered his Caucasian army to cross the frontier and attack the Turks.

TURKISH TROOPS ARE NEAR EGYPTIAN BORDER.

London, Nov. 3.—A dispatch from Cairo says that Turkish troops are reported near the border but have not crossed it.

ATTEMPT TO TAKE YPRES SUNDAY FAILED

London, Nov. 3.—A British correspondent says the Germans' mighty attempt to capture Ypres Sunday failed and that the losses on both sides were enormous. It is reported that the German emperor was present and ordered Ypres taken at any cost.

BRITISH CRUISER SHELLED ARABIAN TOWN.

London, Nov. 3.—The Admiralty announced today that the fortified town of Akabah, Arabia, on the Red Sea, had been shelled by the British cruiser Minerva, the troops had evacuated and landing parties from the Minerva proceeded to destroy the forts, barracks, stores, etc. There was some loss to the enemy but no British casualties.

London, Nov. 3.—There is a report from Constantinople that the grand vizier has apologized to Russia, Great Britain and France for the acts of the Turkish fleet in the Black sea, but many events of the past twenty-four hours show that war between Turkey and the triple entente has actually begun and that only the formal notification is lacking.

The Turkish ambassador to Great Britain, Tewfik Pasha, has been handed his passports and expects to leave for Berlin today. The ambassadors of the triple entente powers received their passports in Constantinople on Sunday and the British ambassador immediately departed for Bulgaria on a special train. The French and Russian envoys left this morning.

Two Turk Ships Sunk.
Fighting on sea and land shows how meaningless have been the protestations of Turkish officials. It is reported from Athens and Rome that a British and French squadron sank two Turkish war ships in the harbor of Tchesme, near Smyrna. The Turks renewed the bombardment of Odessa and Theodosia on Saturday. Turkish armies are massing near Beyrout and on the Caucasian frontier and two Turkish army corps are nearing the frontier of Egypt and the report persists that from 2,000 to 3,000 bedouins have already crossed the border.

In addition, Turkey is mining the coast of Smyrna and is sending mullahs to preach the Jihad in Asia and Africa. It is learned in Athens that the Anglo-French fleet which has been concentrated within striking distance of the Dardanelles, entered the harbor of Tchesme, which is forty miles west, southwest of Smyrna, and found two Turkish war ships for which the fleet had been searching. These were the gun boat Dubakriess and the converted cruiser Khialada. The report says that the Turkish ships were sunk. It is assumed here that the British and French ships have been ordered to prevent Turkish warships from operating in the Aegean.

Freshman Class Party.

The Freshman class of the North Dixon high school was most enjoyably entertained Saturday evening at a progressive Halloween party by Misses Vernie Hubbard and Audred Graves. The fore part of the evening was spent in playing games at the Hubbard home on E. Chamberlain street and at 10 o'clock all were chaperoned to the Graves home by Mrs. Hubbard on North Dixon avenue where a delicious supper was served.

The homes were prettily decorated in keeping with Halloween. At the Graves home the dining room was prettily done in yellow and white streamers festooned from the chandelier to the corners of the table. Covers were laid for thirty. A large basket filled with red apples was used as a centerpiece and dolls dressed in black and yellow were the favors. The places were marked with unique cards, on which were written the fortune of the holder. A delicious supper consisting of salads, sandwiches, baked beans, cakes, cocoa and candies was served by the hostesses and their mothers.

The guests departed at a late hour with expressions of having enjoyed a most happy time.

EST BROOKLYN

Jarrette & Sampson's guaranteed vaudeville attractions at the opera house this week.

Regular meeting of St. Mary's court No. 1382 C. O. F. in the new club rooms on Thursday night, Nov. 12th.

LOST upon the streets of West Brooklyn, a lady's gold watch. Liberal reward will be paid for its return to this office.

Sam Carr is busy every day buying rags, paper, magazines, brass and copper.

August Chaon and family are now nicely settled in their new home opposite the school house.

B. J. Long is erecting a large ice house upon the family lots adjoining their home. The building will be used to store ice for the use of the restaurant and also for the accommodation of their customers who will be able to buy ice whenever desired next summer. This is something that the people of West Brooklyn have been unable to do for a long time.

Last Wednesday's rain prevented the third night of the Alle Breen show in the opera house and thus our people did not have the opportunity of seeing the colored and comic dramas on the last night as had been announced. Knowing that the people of this vicinity appreciate that class of show better than the more serious sort we feel that they would have enjoyed Wednesday night's program best of all. Nevertheless Mr. England says he will try to return to West Brooklyn in February and will hope that the weather man will not disturb his stay next time.

The Foresters moved from the F. L. Oester building to the Auchstetter & Oester building across the street the first of the month. The new club rooms are much more commodious than the former one was and will afford the large membership of the court an excellent meeting place and club room combined. The present quarters are also of sufficient size to hold institutes therein and consequently the court will not have to look for other halls when upon special occasions they would count upon a larger attendance than usual.

Subscribe for the West Brooklyn News Now. $1.50 per year in advance.

O. N. Day is a busy man these days buying poultry from the farmers of this vicinity. His wagon is running throughout the country and saves the farmers from bringing it to town or other markets. Most of the people appreciate this service and consequently Mr. Daw buys thousands of pounds of poultry that ordinarily would go to other markets.

Day by day we approach the Lee County Farmers' Institute a little nearer. Are you doing your share to make this institute a big success? Ask yourself this question and if you feel that you can be of help to the institute in any way do not hesitate to offer your services to the committees in charge of the work. They will appreciate whatever you can do or have to offer and your co-operation will help considerably to make their duties less burdensome.

The Farmers' Elevator Company completed the erection of their new corn cribs along the C. B. & Q. right of way west of town on Wednesday. Just as they nailed on the last board the first load of corn was pulled over the scale and waited to be unloaded in the cribs. This means that the company finished the building just at the right time, soon enough, and still not too late. The cribs are built in a good substantial manner and should stand for a long time. The foundation is made of solid concrete.

The first new corn of the 1914 crop was received in West Brooklyn by Mr. Guffin on Thursday. The crop was that raised on the Capes farm and from reports it shelled in good shape and is of good quality. New corn has been selling for 60c per bushel in West Brooklyn.

M. J. Bieschke is erecting a new garage on his home lots for the storage of his automobile.

W. S. Block of the Dixon News and Mr. Young of Dixon were here Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sommer were here Friday.

John E. Moyer and R. R. Phillips of Dixon, candidates on the republican ticket for the offices of treasurer and sheriff respectively, were visiting with their many friends in our village Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Gehant and daughter Leafy, Miss Anna McCormick and James Biggart motored to Walton on Thursday night to attend the fair. They report a very enjoyable time and a large crowd on hand, making the event of the week in that village a big success. Barr's orchestra of this place furnished the music for the dancing each evening.

Farmers usually enjoy some farm paper throughout the long winter evenings. For their especial advantage we have taken the agency for several of the leading farm weeklies and will be glad to have your subscription at any time. Our two leaders are The Breeder's Gazette and The Wallace Farmer. We also have the Chicago Herald and the Chicago Tribune as well as the Chicago Journal to offer you in the line of a daily paper in clubbing offers with the News.

The motto of the Jarrette & Sampson vaudeville shows is "Money refunded if not satisfied." They are at the opera house this week.

Joseph B. Bauer was in town transacting business on last Thursday afternoon.

The sale of the Edward McIntyre Sr. farm of 80 acres in Lee County township on Thursday, November 5, is attracting considerable attention from those seeking real estate investments. Very likely a large crowd will be present when the farm is placed upon the auction block Thursday. Two choice heifers and calves will be sold at that time also, in order to settle the estate.

Begin at once the prudent way of paying bills; open an account at the Henry F. Gehant Banking Co., West Brooklyn, Ill.

Henry Halboth was in town transacting business on Saturday forenoon. After another month Mr. Halboth will move from the farm to Mendota where he will enjoy his retired life, while the younger generation continue in his place upon the farm. We would prefer to see Henry move to West Brooklyn and be among us here but just the same we know he will not be so far away but that he will return often to visit with us all. We trust that his new home will be an enjoyable one.

Harry Christiance and Mahlon Gurthrie of Dixon were visitors here on Thursday.

Er. Henry Jr. was in town on Friday from his Compton address doing some shopping.

F. J. Gehant was a visitor in Paw Paw from our town on last Friday afternoon.

A moving picture show reached West Brooklyn on Saturday and after a short notice to our people exhibited their views in the opera house on that night. Despite the little time allowed for advertising they had a good attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. August Gehant motored to Dixon on Friday afternoon to allow their daughter Stella to return home with them for the over Sunday vacation. On Saturday the family motored to Mendota to visit friends.

Lincoln Hospital.

We are pleased to mention the success of the Lincoln Hospital, situated on the Lincoln Highway in the city of Rochelle.

The first patient to enter the operating room was a young lady of Rochelle on August 20th. Since then the work has continued without interruption and at times all the beds on the upper floor have been occupied. In the first two months' history of Lincoln hospital one hundred and nine patients were received; male, fifty-two; female, fifty-seven. There were forty-eight major operations and forty minor, with twenty-one medical cases.

The citizens of Rochelle have been very cordial in their reception of Dr. and Mrs. Chandler and the medical fraternity are frequent callers at the hospital. At this time some of the physicians have patients whom they are treating in the hospital and are almost daily bringing cases of surgery.

Don't stay stuffed up! Quit blowing and sniffing! A dose of "Paper's Cold Compound" taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end grip misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, nose or limbs.

It promptly opens clogged up nostrils and air passages; stops nasty discharge or nose running; relieves sick headache, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

"Paper's Cold Compound" is the quickest, surest relief known and costs only 25 cents at drug stores. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, and causes no inconvenience. Don't accept a substitute.

Grandma's recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur dardens so naturally that nobody can tell.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy.

Lincoln Hospital.

We are pleased to mention the success of the Lincoln Hospital, situated on the Lincoln Highway in the city of Rochelle.

The first patient to enter the operating room was a young lady of Rochelle on August 20th. Since then the work has continued without interruption and at times all the beds on the upper floor have been occupied. In the first two months' history of Lincoln hospital one hundred and nine patients were received; male, fifty-two; female, fifty-seven. There were forty-eight major operations and forty minor, with twenty-one medical cases.

The citizens of Rochelle have been very cordial in their reception of Dr. and Mrs. Chandler and the medical fraternity are frequent callers at the hospital. At this time some of the physicians have patients whom they are treating in the hospital and are almost daily bringing cases of surgery.

BREAKS A COLD IN FEW HOURS TRY IT

FIRST DOSE OF PAPER'S COLD COMPOUND RELIEVES ALL GRIP MYSELY.

Don't stay stuffed up! Quit blowing and sniffing! A dose of "Paper's Cold Compound" taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end grip misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, nose or limbs.

It promptly opens clogged up nostrils and air passages; stops nasty discharge or nose running; relieves sick headache, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

"Paper's Cold Compound" is the quickest, surest relief known and costs only 25 cents at drug stores. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, and causes no inconvenience. Don't accept a substitute.

Grandma's recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur dardens so naturally that nobody can tell.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy.

ard school's requirements. As our cause is most worthy we feel that you will do all within your power to give us a boost. Don't miss this grand occasion for it will reveal rival "Ye old time spelling bee's" in every detail.

IMPORTANCE OF HEALTHY KIDNEY

WHICH IS BETTER—TRY AN EXPERIMENT OR PROFIT BY A DIXON CITIZEN'S EXPERIENCE.

Something new is an experiment. Must be proved to be as representative.

The statement of a manufacturer is not convincing proof of merit. But the endorsement of friends is. Now supposing you had a lame back,

A lame, weak, or aching one. Would you experiment on it? You will read of many so-called cures. Endorsed by strangers from far-away places.

It's different when the endorsement comes from home. Easy to prove local testimony. Read this Dixon case: J. B. Clark, 722 Highland Ave., Dixon, says: "I had kidney complaint and backache and the doctors seemed unable to do anything for me. Finally, I read of Doan's Kidney Pills and got a supply at Leake Bros. drug store. They cured me and I haven't had any serious trouble since. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills worthy of the highest praise and I gladly confirm the endorsement I gave them some years ago."

Mr. Clark is only one of many Dixon people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Clark had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c, all stores. ## PEACE MEETING OUSTS CARRANZA Eulalio Gutierrez Is Proclaimed Provisional President.

STRONG AGAINST CATHOLICS

Carranza Declines to Lay Down Office and Troops Prepare for Clash—New President Claimed by Both Factions, but Tenure Is Only Twenty Days.

Terreon, Mexico, Nov. 2.—Carranza has been deposed by the Aguas Calientes peace conference. General Eulalio Gutierrez has been proclaimed provisional president. Carranza has refused to yield to Gutierrez unless Generals Villa and Zapata first leave Mexico, and the armies of all these factions are now moving troops for a war which will be between Carranza on one side and Villa and Zapata on the other. Villa's troops, moved from the north, swarmed around Aguas Calientes, hitherto regarded as neutral territory, and began moving south toward the constitutionalists' troops, camped twenty miles south of the city along the railroad leading towards Queretaro. At the same time outposts of Carranza troops were reported as far west as Salinas on the railroad from San Luis Potosi to Aguas Calientes.

Election for Twenty Days Only. Telegrams from Aguas Calientes explained the action of the conference in choosing General Eulalio Gutierrez as provisional president for only twenty days. It is desired to secure from General Zapata approval of the selection. The conference will then make its selection permanent. By that time the conference will probably have resolved itself into a national conference barring the probability that all its members may be leading troops in warfare.

A dispatch from Mexico City transmitted to the conference contained an inquiry from General Carranza for an explanation of the motives which impelled the conference to accept his resignation without first insisting upon the removal of Generals Villa and Zapata from Mexico.

Both Factions Claim New Chief. Both Villa and Carranza representatives claim the selection of General Gutierrez as a victory for their factions. As governor of the state San Luis Potosi appointed by Carranza the Carranzistas claim that Gutierrez selection is a decided victory for the forces of the first chief. The Villistas also claim Gutierrez as having been exceptionally friendly to Villa.

He's Against Catholics. Since the start of the present revolution the new provisional president has been head of the forces of the state of San Luis Potosi and upon the fall of the Huerta government, he was appointed governor of the state. Since becoming governor he has taken a strong stand against the Catholic church and is credited with having confiscated in the city of San Luis Potosi alone, seventy houses belonging to prominent Catholic church officials.

Cunard President Dies. London, Nov. 2.—Alfred Booth, president of the Cunard and Anchor line steamship companies, died here.

Czar So Far Has Foe Hurrying Across Frontier.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Official dispatches made public by the French embassy here announce that the German army retreating before the Russian army in Poland are now basing on Edinsh, Ransom and Ilza. The Germans were said to have lost prisoners and ammunition.

Petrograd, Oct. 30.—The entire Russian army is again advancing against the Austro-German forces. Advice from the front indicate that the Austrian troops in Galicia are being enveloped by the Russian left, while the Russian center and right are driving the Germans back upon their advanced lines of defense inside of the East Prussian frontier.

After more than a week of fighting along the San river the Austrians have now commenced to retreat from the southern section. The only thing which is interfering with the advance of the entire Russian left wing is the stubborn resistance being maintained by the fortress of Przemyel. Energetic efforts are being made to reduce it, and it is believed that it will not be able to resist more than a few days longer. Already breaches have been made in the outer walls. Prisoners who were captured following an unsuccessful sortie state that the supplies are running short.

The British and Russian governments have agreed to a mutually advantageous exchange of combatant and technical forces, the details of which will be announced later.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 31.—John H. O'Brien, Lamont's enterprising undertaker, sat in his swivel chair waiting. Presently the telephone bell rang and he answered it. "Come down to Willow Springs, John," said the man at the other end of the wire. "There's another body in the net."

Thereupon the undertaker hung up the receiver, shrugged his shoulders significantly, put on his hat, called for his "dead" wagon and drove to Willow Springs.

Undertaker O'Brien is a man of novel ideas. When he first conceived the plan of placing a net across the Desplaines river at Willow Springs to catch bodies which occasionally floated down stream the wise ridiculed his ingenuity. But success has crowned his business getting scheme. His "catch" was the fourteenth of the season.

The body is that of a well dressed man, believed to have been murdered. Gravel filled every pocket of the dead man's clothing. A deep gash was found over his right eye. His skull was crushed. The body apparently had been in the water several months. The man was about thirty years old, weighed 165 pounds and was five feet eight inches tall. He had a heavy growth of black hair and was smoothly shaved. Two upper teeth were missing. He wore blue striped trousers, a blue shirt, a brown checked coat and black lace oxfords. All possible marks of identification had been removed.

The new 1914 crop of Tom Thumb Popcorn has arrived. This is the corn that has the smallest ear, the smallest cob, the smallest kernel; and when popped the most tender and crisp corn grown.

It has been difficult to get enough of this corn to carry us from one crop to another. 1912 we bought 2000 lbs. but it only lasted till September the next year. 1913 we bought 2500 lbs. but not enough. This year we bought 3500 lbs. but as the demand is increasing each year it is not likely to last till the next crop. It is sold 2 lbs. for 15c, and 4 lbs. for 25c. Special price for 50 lb. and 100 lb. lots.
